

December/January

- Popcorn/Christmas Trees
- Gingerbread Men
- Seasons
- Animal Groups
- Donuts

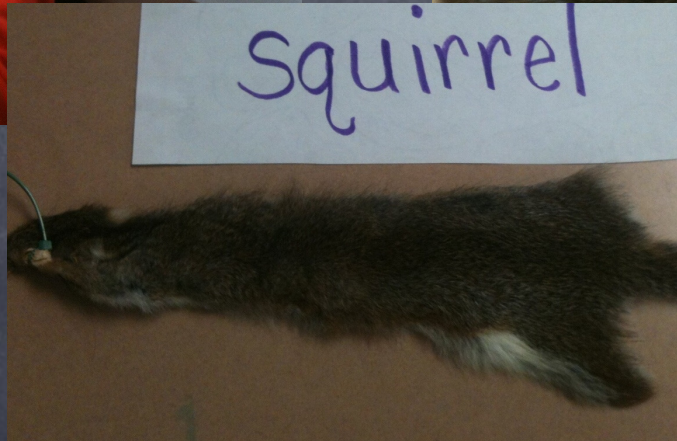

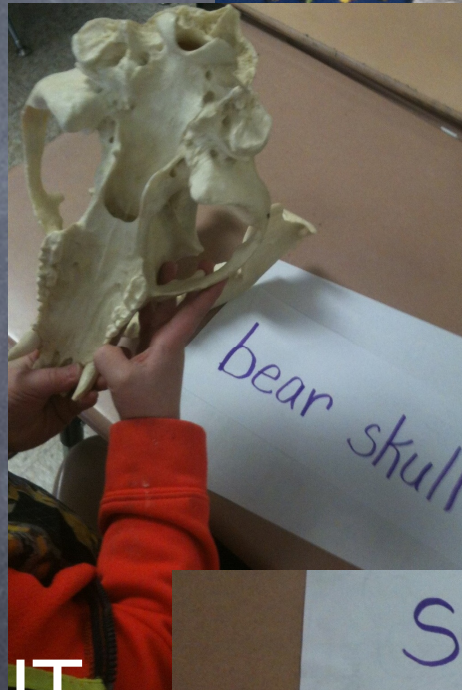

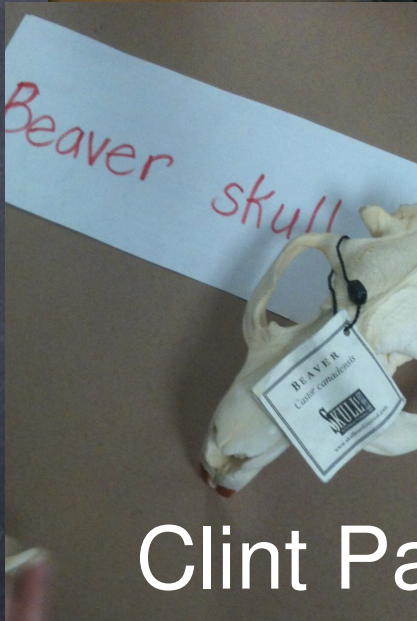

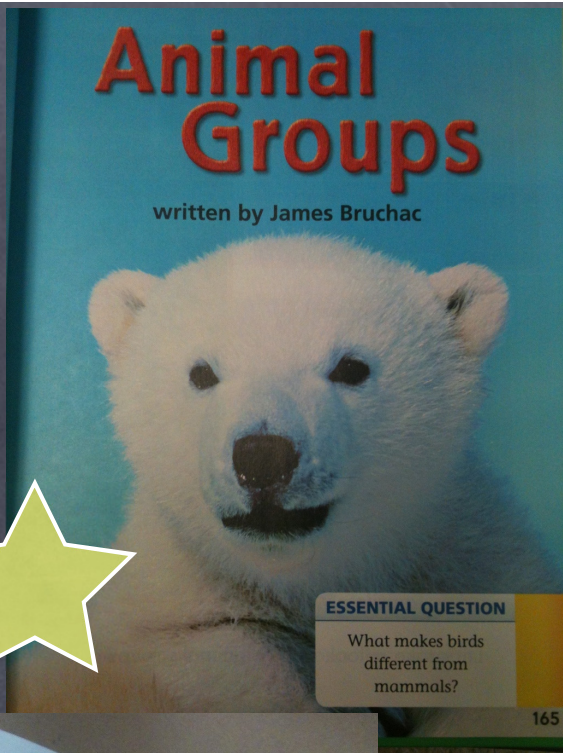

Popcorn and Christmas Trees

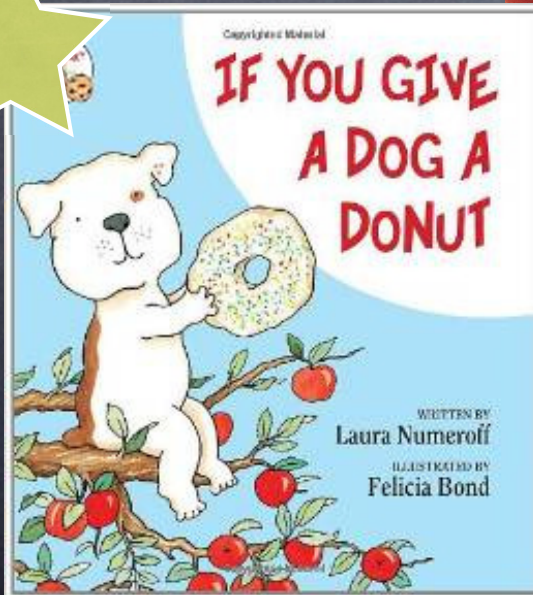

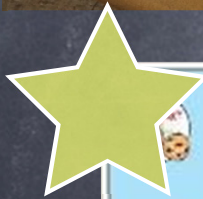

Gingerbread Cookies

Clint Parker, UT
Extension
Animal Pelts

Donuts

February/March

- Where does your food come from?
- Classroom Garden
- Amazing Animals
- Frog and Toad
- Whistle for Willie
- Trees

Book Title: _____

Date: _____

Author: _____

STORY BOARD

Draw or write the events of the story on the story board. Record them in the correct order.

1 potatoes
growing in the field

2 100 Circle

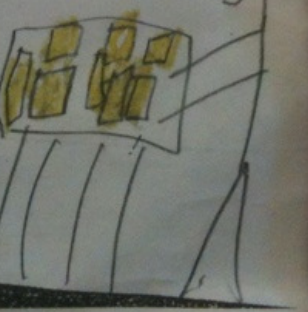

3 deliver

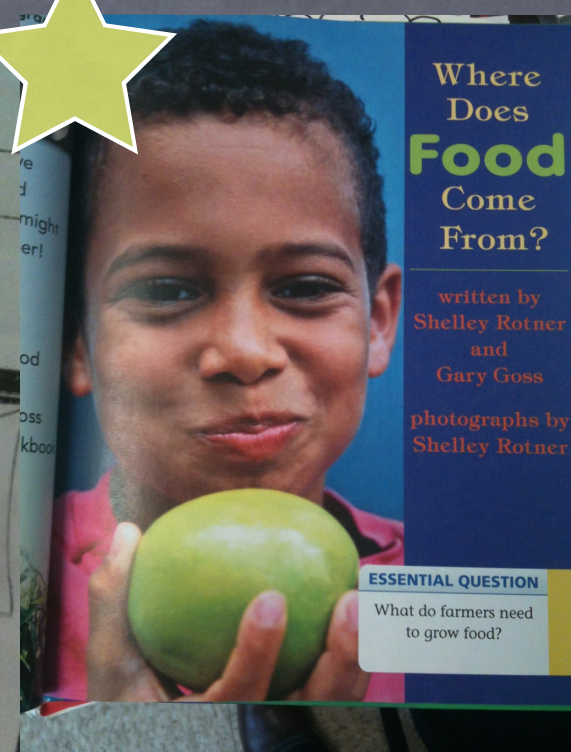

4 machine

5 checking

6 eat it.

100 Circle Farms

STORY BOARD

Draw or write the events of the story on the story board. Record them in the correct order.

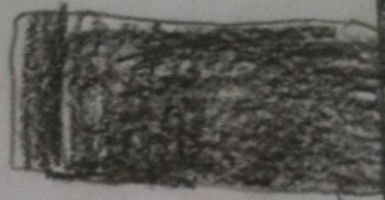

1

seeds

2

Basket

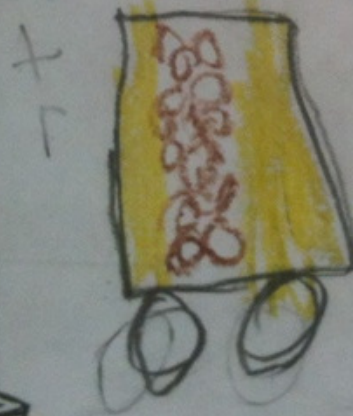

3

grow

4

fruits

5

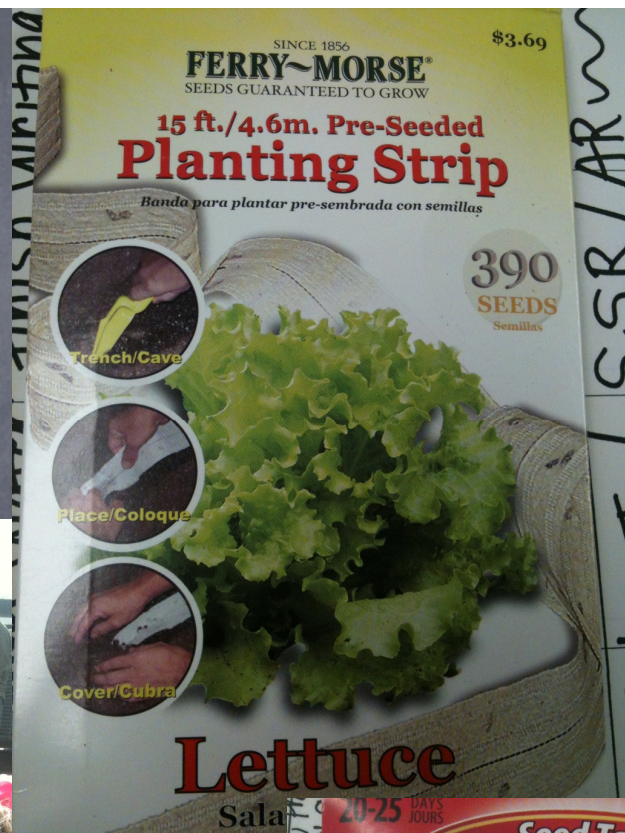

boxes

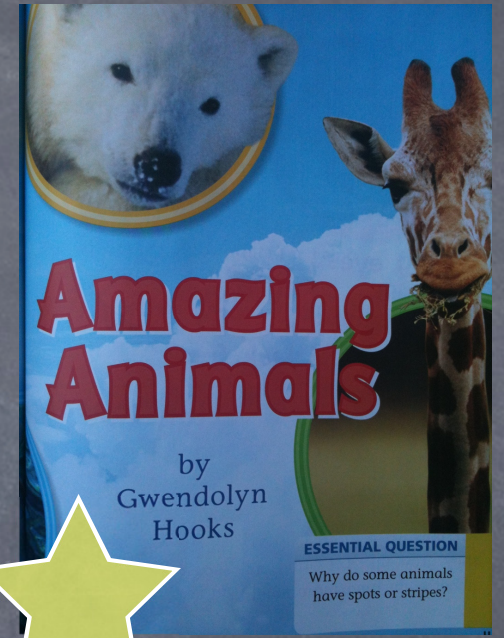

6

fries

Classroom
Garden

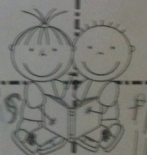

The Nashville Zoo
Eve, Archimedes, and Fezzik

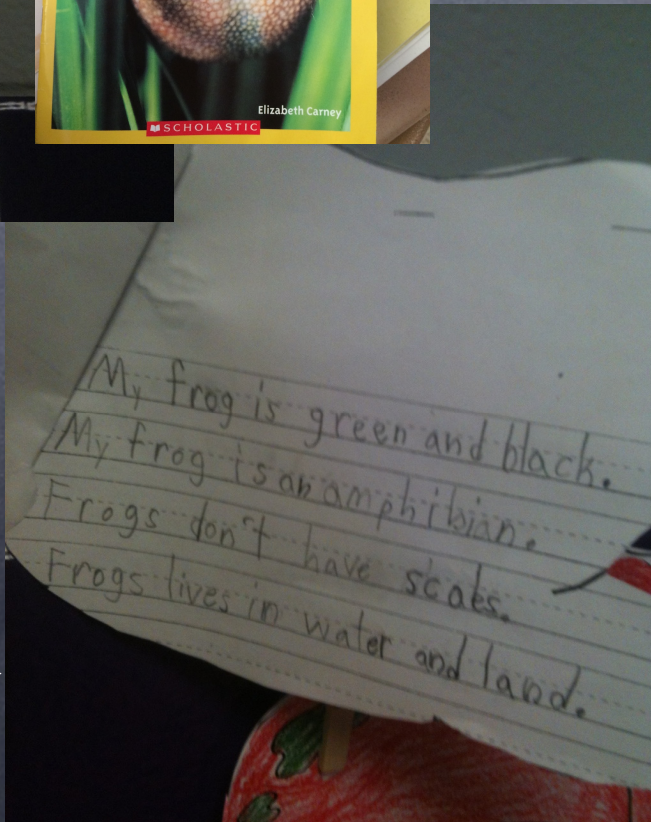

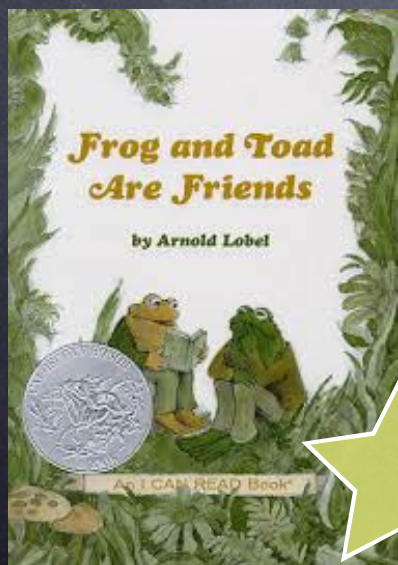

4 fun facts

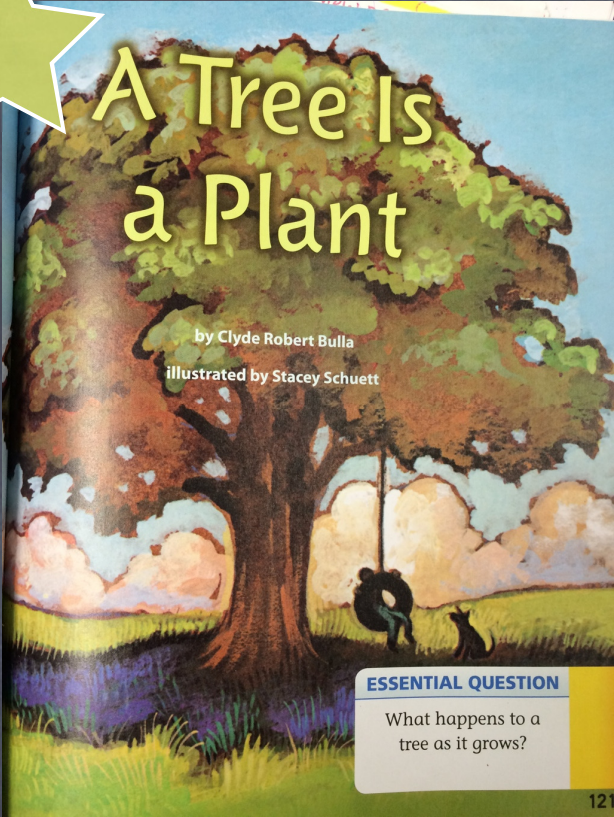

A frog is an amphibian. A frog has wet skin.

A frog is just not green. Frogs like dirt water.

Otis

Farm Tour Grant- JB Donohoe and Sons

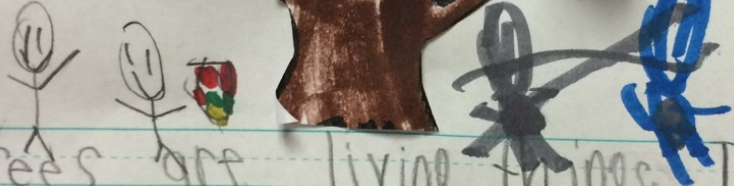

Trees

Trees

Trees are living things.
A tree is a plant.
A tree needs soil and water.
I like that trees because they give us air.
The roots grow into the ground.

Trees are living things. Trees are plants. Trees need soil and water, food and roots. There are different kinds of trees. I love picking apples and pears.